A Tonic Free from Alcohol

Are you pale, weak, easily tired, and do you lack nerve power? Ask your doctor if Ayer's Sarsaparilla would not be good for you. He knows, and will advise you wisely. Not a drop of alcohol in this medicine. It puts red corpuscles into the blood, gives steady, even power to the nerves; and all without stimulation. Make no mistake. Take only those medicines the best doctors endorse. Ask your own doctor.

THE HILO JAIL IS "ROTTEN"

Sanitary Report Worse Than Had Been Feared-Prisoners Sleep on Floor.

By Kahuku Wireless) HILO, January 20.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Chief Sanitary Inspector D. S. Bowman of the territorial board of health has found that the report of shocking conditions existing in snocking conditions existing in the Hilo jail has not been exag-gerated in the least. Following a thorough investigation he has reported to President Pratt of the board of health that he found both the jail and the kitchen filthy beyond description and infested with vermin. He also reported that prisoners suffering from several varieties of diseases were without bed-ding and were forced to sleep on the floor with the healthy prisoners. Bowman's report, which goes into details as to the conditions he found, has been forwarded to Doctor Pratt.

The attention The Advertiser has forced upon the jail abuses in Hilo and Miss the grafting of Mayor Fern and others in the employment of county prisoners on Oahu has resulted in steps being taken to change Hilo conditions very radically and in a searching of the prison laws on the part of territorial and federal outcials with a view of

The searchlight of publicity has re sulted in Mayor Forn hastily seeking cover; in a series of investigations into conditions in Hilo; in a search-of ter-ritorial law on the subject of prison labor, and an implied promise from Gov-ernor Frear to take up the matter with the legislature with a view of securing necessary legislation to effect the reforms so much needed.

In Governor's Message.

Governor Frear is interested in the matter of the treatment of prisoners both in Honolulu and in Hilo and will probably make some suggestions in message to the legislature regarding canges in the existing laws. The Governor yesterday called attention to the present laws relating to the labor of prisoners, the majority of which date back to 1859 and contain facts not generally known. erally known.

The following section provides that the high sheriff shall hold such prisoners at the disposal of the superintendent of public works, to be employed by the latter on public works or otherwise as he, under the law, shall direct.

Another section provides that the at torney general may detail prisoners for work on any public road upon appli ention from any road supervisor or road board.

"As far as the federal government is concerned, I do not believe that there is any law which would conflict with a territorial statute prescribing work for the prisoners in the city, county, and territorial prisons. I do not know what laws the 'serritory may have in regard to the treatment of prisoners.

High sheriff Blames County.

High sheriff William Henry has jurisdiction over the prisoners employed on the Volcano Road near Hilo, according to a statement made by that official vesterday. But aside from this he has no jurisdiction over the county prisoners or the county jail.

"We have and a number of complaints regarding the handling of our prisoners in Hawaii, said High Sher-... Henry. "Al. of them have been investigated, and in every instance we have found that they were not founded on facts and were probably based on political or other private motives. "Though I have no jurisdiction either over the county prisoners at Hilo or the jail or officials there I know that the jail conditions are not what they should be. In the first place, the jail s too small. Besides, the hospital facilities are entirely inadequate. From what I have learned it looks as if the supervisors, who have the power to remedy these conditions, have failed to give them any attention. The result has been illness among the prisoners. This will probably continue until the needed improvements are made.'

CARRY FIGHT SUPREME COURT

Attorneys For Spreckels Heirs Opposes a Motion For Possession.

That the heirs under the will of the ate Claus Sprekels and those interestof with them in the Spreckels property interests in Honolulu do not intend to abide by the recent decision of Judge E. Cooper, of the circuit court Henry was evidenced yesterday when Attorney David L. Withington, of course for the heirs under the will, opposed an effort on the part of Attorney Robbins B. Anderson, of counsel for John D. and Rudolph Sprekels, to have the judgment include an order giving the plaintiffs right to possession of their interest in the property involved.

The motion was made before Judge Cooper in chambers soon after the noon recess. Attorney Withington soparently did not intend to combat the entering of the judgment, but made a strong protest against it including an order giving plaintiffs possession of the property.
Attorney Anderson presented a number of authorities in support of his con-tention asking for possession of the property, but their application was de-nied by counsel for the heirs under the

To Present Anthorities.

Judge Cooper seemed inclined to take the same view as Attorney Withington, but gave the plaintiffs until ten o'clock this morning to present further authorities in support of their motion. It is believed that counsel for the peirs will soon file their motion with the territorial supreme court for a writ of error, thus taking the case be-fore that body for review. Attorney Withington has already approunced that in the event the territorial court upholds the decision of Judge Cooper an appear will immediately be taken to the United States Supreme Court. This will probably mean several years' additional litigation before the title to the Spreckels estate holdings in Honoulu is finally determined.

Possession during the pending of this litigation is looked upon as important to the litigants and for this reason considerable interest attaches to the decision of Judge Cooper on this question expected today. May Make Difference.

Judge Cooper's decision was handed down January 9, last. In that he refused to consider the decision of the supreme court of California declaring Mrs. G. Ayres, R. Drum, L. B. Manager of Polish Emigration Society Finds It Hard to Get Information.

With a view of investigating conditions pertaining to immigrants as they exist in the Hawaiian Islands, Joseph I, Okolowicz, of Cracow, Austrian Poland, managing director of the Polish Emigration Society, arrived in Honolulu

Mr. Okolowicz comes here as the result of the visit of Dr. Victor Clark to Cracow last fall. He plans to spend eighteen days in going over the Islands and as he speaks Rossian and Portuguese, in addition to four other languages, expects to have but little difficulty in ascertaining whether Hawaii offers sufficient inducements to his countrymen to emigrate here.

'Very few Anstrians have ever visited Hawaii,' said Okolowicz at the Young Hotel last night, 'and that for the good reason that it is utterly unknown to them. There is no literature over there dealing with this country and Baedeker makes no mention of it. Some few have heard of it as being a Boxos Mr. Okolowicz comes here as the re-

Some few have heard of it as being a beautiful country, but they picture it as being like dark Africa and full of savages. It will be a pleasure to me on my return to see that articles properly advertising this beautiful country are given full publicity.

"Among the Poles, Hawaii is perhaps a little better known, but not favorably. A number of years ago, when the contract labor system was in vogne here, some one hundred Poles came to Hawaii. They claimed to have been very badly treated and to have been very badly treated and Exis Con fis. to have been very badly treated and when they returned home they spread and reports about the country, so that for a long time if you mentioned Ha-waii to prospective emigrants there, they would hold ap their hands in horror and say, 'We will not go there to be slaves.'

More Interest in Hawaii,

"Of course, our society knows that conditions are much different now and we tell them so, and now much interest is being taken in Hawaii.
"Our people are fand hungry, and so they are emigrating to countries where they can get parcels of ground. There is nothing for them in their own ountry for land is too high. Again, it is so thickly settled that there is not 7 O. R. & L. Co., 135. enough work for all. There would be no agriculture in Germany without the coles who go there and work in the fields in the summer, returning home for the winter, "For a time emigration was opposed, but seeing that it could not be stopped, it was determined to organize societies which would, through agents, visit the countries to which the peo-ple were going and ascertain what inducements were offered them. I have just come from Canada where there are several thousand of Poles. The government there has a much broader im migration policy than the United States, instead of putting obstacles in the way of wortny immigrants, it welcomes them, gives them land, and provides work for them until they can CHILDREN DESCRIBE get the equipment necessary to go on their own farms. "In Southern Brazil there are 100,000 Poles, who are happy and prosperous now, although for the first year the country and customs were so strange to them that they gave some trouble. Coroner's Jury Returns Verdict It is probable that they would be dis-contented here for a while, because the Polish peasant is conservative, he dis-likes change, and finds it hard to get used to new customs and ways of do-ing things. Fart of the work of our society is to encourage them to remain steadfast in their new homes, and so not provide them with opportunities to Literacy T at Innocuous. When the Panama Canal is opened, it in the little schoolhouse in Kalihi Val-will be much easier for you to get im-migrants and much cheaper. That Mrs. Mascoto came to her death will be sent to the society.

'Naturally, as I have just arrived,
I have formed no impressions, except that I am very surprised with Honolube. In New York and Chicago I tried in vain at many bookstores to get books or literature dealing with Hawaii. When I arrived here, it is heard at the newsstand for a copy of the book entitled 'The Real Hawaii.' They say they have not got it, and sell to me another book which I perceive is a change geography of the Islands.
